PERSONAL PROFILE

I am an enthusiastic inspiring runner to get the necessary experience and insight on the next step of my journey. My career path is desiring a career in post-production.

My ambition has been to gain more opportunities in the industry to understand the roles of post-production, since working on my skills at a young age I think being a runner would be a suitable position to help me get started on my path.

In my own time, I work on my video editing skills. I have been known for my freelance work as I completed several media commissions including a video of interviews which will be used in Safeguarding training across Wales, UK.

My key known strengths have been, being a good listener, enthusiastic, creative thinker, organiser and passionate in the media field since a young age.

DRIVING

I have a clean driving licence and a reliable car. I have been driving officially since March 2024 and have the necessary skills for the road with different driving conditions and motorway travel.
